What the Critics say: "Rampike, one of the few journals to consistently publish conceptual work in an international context."
– Jason McBride (Quill & Quire, Canada).

"Perhaps, what I shall call here the poetry of radical artifice will just disappear. Perhaps, but in the meantime, it keeps turning up like a virus: in Canada, where the Concrete poetry movement of the fifties and sixties and the emergence of sound-text poetry and performance work have generated, often without direct connection to its U.S. counterparts, [there is] the very rich and vital experimentalism in evidence in such journals as Rampike..."
– Marjorie Perloff (Stanford University, USA).
